ORDER:

Government of India has sanctioned funds under Rashtriya Krishi Vikas Yojana (RKVY) to various sectors under the administrative control of Animal Husbandry, Dairy Development and Fisheries Department including Dairy sector for implementation of various components. The State Level Sanctioning Committee under R.K.V.Y. in its meeting held on 29.9.2009 has approved allocation of an amount of Rs.10.00 crores sanctioned by Government of India for establishment of Bulk Milk Cooling Units during the year 2009-10. Already 125 new Bulk Milk Cooling Units in the State have been established and are functioning to their fullest capacity. Hence, it is considered that further sanction of funds under R.K.V.Y. for establishment of Bulk Milk Cooling Units may be reduced to some extent and preference may be given to other components of Dairy sector. In view of the above circumstances, Government hereby order for re-allocation of the funds of Rs.10.00 crores sanctioned under Rashtriya Krishi Vikas Yojana to the Dairy sector for the year 2009-10 as detailed below:

1. Establishment of Bulk Milk Cooling Units in the State	... Rs. 5.00 crores
2. Dairy Unit at Kankipadu with Milk Chilling Center-cum-Packing Station, Kankipadu, Krishna Dt. etc.	... Rs. 4.00 crores
3. Improvements to Dairy Unit of Godavari District Cooperative Milk Producers Union, Rajahmundry	... Rs. 1.00 crore
Total	... Rs.10.00 crores

2. Approval of the Chief Secretary to Government & Chairman, State Level Sanctioning Committee on Rashtriya Krishi Vikas Yojana has been obtained for re-allocation of funds as detailed above.

3. The Managing Director, Andhra Pradesh Dairy Development Cooperative Federation Limited, Hyderabad is requested to utilize the amount of Rs.10.00 crores as per the above revised allocation. He is also requested to place the above matter before the next meeting of the State Level Sanctioning Committee on Rashtriya Krishi Vikas Yojana for information.
